MY STYLE

At Em Frampton Photography, my style is all about capturing moments that feel real and authentic, while still creating beautifully composed and artistic images. I love working with natural light and using rich, vibrant tones to bring out the energy and emotion in every photo. Whether I'm photographing a large event or a quiet, intimate moment, I focus on telling a story through my lens, making sure each image reflects the personality and uniqueness of my clients.

My approach is relaxed and client-centered. I believe in making people feel comfortable in front of the camera so that their true selves shine through. I tailor every shoot to fit the vibe and needs of the event or individual, whether it's a big celebration or a personal portrait session. For me, it's important to deliver high-quality, polished images that still feel full of life and emotion. My attention to detail and love for composition ensure that each shot is memorable and visually striking.

“Choosing Emily as our wedding photographer was one of the best decisions we made. She was kind, caring, respectful, fun, and she made sure we were comfortable throughout the whole process. When she took our engagement pictures, we were immediately excited for our wedding pictures and we were still blown away! She was organized and timely while still managing to get the most naturally fun pictures of us and all of our family. Thank you Emily! We will cherish your work forever!”
